

Above, an interactive/mechanized work called "Her Flock" may be seen in the Virginia Intermont College Fine Arts Center Gallery.

Right, "Got Any Grapes?" by Marvin Tadlock is part of the "Four Sculptors" exhibition at William King Regional Arts Center in Abingdon.

Exhibits...

Continued from page 20

4 are the works of Bristol artists Tedd and Carole Blevins in a show entitled "Along the Way." An opening reception will be held Sunday, March 5 from 2-4 p.m. for Wendy Gregg of Floyd, Va. Her nature photographs, taken with a pinhole camera, will be on view March 5-April 22. The show is entitled "Watermarks," derived from the lines of motion created in the darkroom. These images are about time, motion, memory and intuition. The Arts Depot will celebrate Youth Art Month with an exhibit from Abingdon High School March 2-April 1. A reception for the young artists will take place Saturday, March 18 from 1-3 p.m. 276-628-9091.

- Two shows are scheduled at the Virginia Intermont College Fine Arts Center Gallery. Continuing through March 10 is an exhibit of work by Martijn van Wagtenonk, assistant professor in Studio Foundations at the University of Georgia Lamar Dodd School of Art. The display is an interactive/mechanized work called "Her Flock." A flock of birds sits quietly, each on a pedestal. The moment a viewer approaches, the birds begin flapping their wings to take off. They move upwards, where they remain in flight until the area has cleared of all viewers. A Juried Student Show will be on view March 23-April 20.

- A new exhibit at the Museum of the Middle Appalachians in Saltville, Va. features "Mountain Music: The Smith Family Legacy." Featured is the musical history of Hobart Smith, described as a "mountain virtuoso," and his sister Texas Gladden, famous for her repertoire of ballads. Smith, who played seven instruments, could neither read nor write music. Forty-two of his songs were recorded for the Library of Congress in

Exhibits... Continued on page 22

Hobart Smith is the subject of "Mountain Music" at the Museum of the Middle Appalachians in Saltville, Va.

William King Regional Arts Center

Museum standard galleries showcasing art of the region & of the world

Art education for youths & adults

Outdoor sculpture garden

Resident artist studios

Historic house museum

Museum store

EXHIBITIONS ON VIEW DURING MARCH:

Second Nature: The Art of Suzanne Stryk continuing thru March 5

Mountain Handiwork: The American Craft Revival in Virginia continuing thru May 7

That Moment and This Moment: Installations by Marya Roland and Sayaka Suzuki continuing thru April 2 and

Four Sculptors: Greg Bryson, Marvin Tadlock, Jon Mehlferber and Catherine Murray opening March 17

Now reviewing submissions from Upper East TN & Southwest VA artists for publishing opportunities fine art giclée publishing ...call today for info!

M. Graham Paint
the world's best artists' color everyday discounted 40% off retail come see why we're recommended by 4 out of 5 artists surveyed!

get your art work published...affordably!

image size: 18" x 29" $275

excellent framing available!

available in 2 sizes: 16 1/2" x 23" $250 12 1/2" x 16" $120

tools for artists • framing • fine art publishing

artpurveyors.com

a short drive from the Tri-Cities! 2 locations: Boone and Banner Elk N.C. call (800) 861-DRAW