• OPENING OCT. 4: "Sally McCoy" is on Barter Stage II, Abingdon, Va. In the midst of the first gruesomely violent event of the Hatfield and McCoy feud, one woman does what she must to save her family. Sally McCoy tells a harrowing and deeply personal story, which takes a hard look at how women's stories and perspectives are excluded from historical narratives. Set in August 1882, Sally's three eldest sons are captured by the Hatfield clan. Sally defies her womanly place and crosses miles of Appalachian wilderness in the night to save her children. She arrives at the home of the Hatfield patriarch, "Devil" Anse Hatfield, and refuses to let anything stand in her way until she has seen the "Devil" face to face. 276-628-3991, www.bartertheatre.com
